

Overview of field-tested cleaning processes for the ophthalmic lens industry

Borer Chemie AG provides field-tested cleaning processes for all the important cleaning steps involved in the processing of ophthalmic optics. Take full advantage of our years of experience and know-how as well as our in-house cleaning equipment systems to develop your optimum cleaning process.

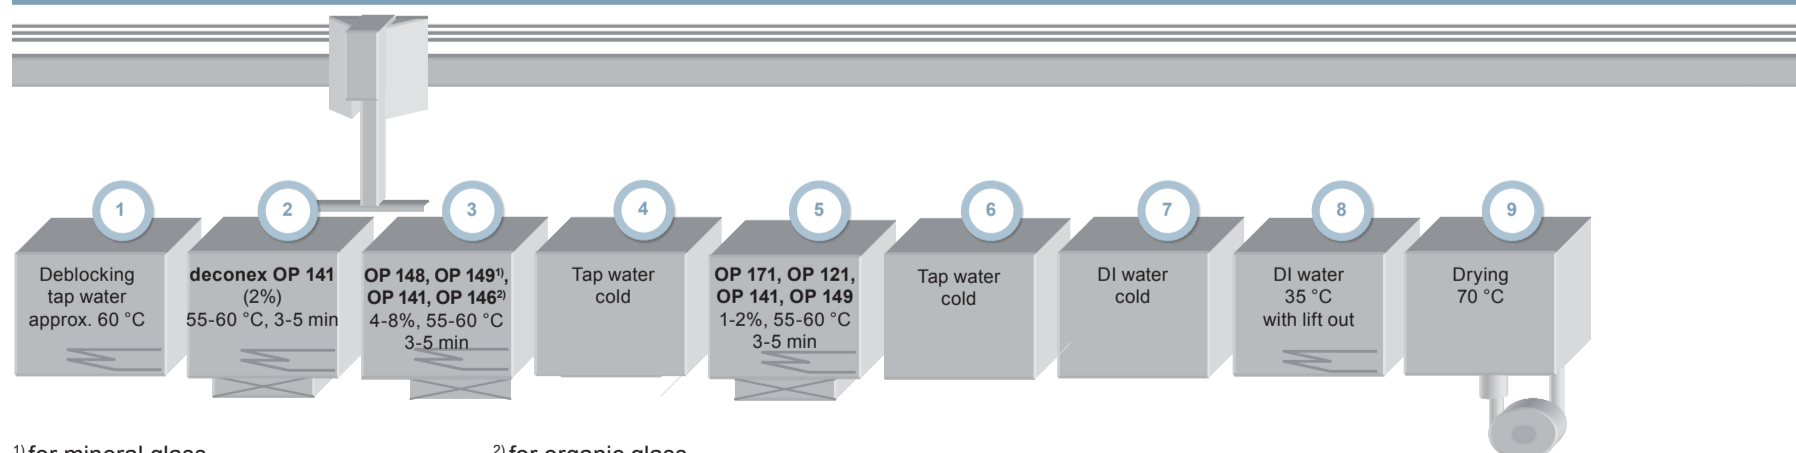

1. Ready-for-inspection cleaning of mineral glass

2. Ready-for-inspection cleaning of organic glass

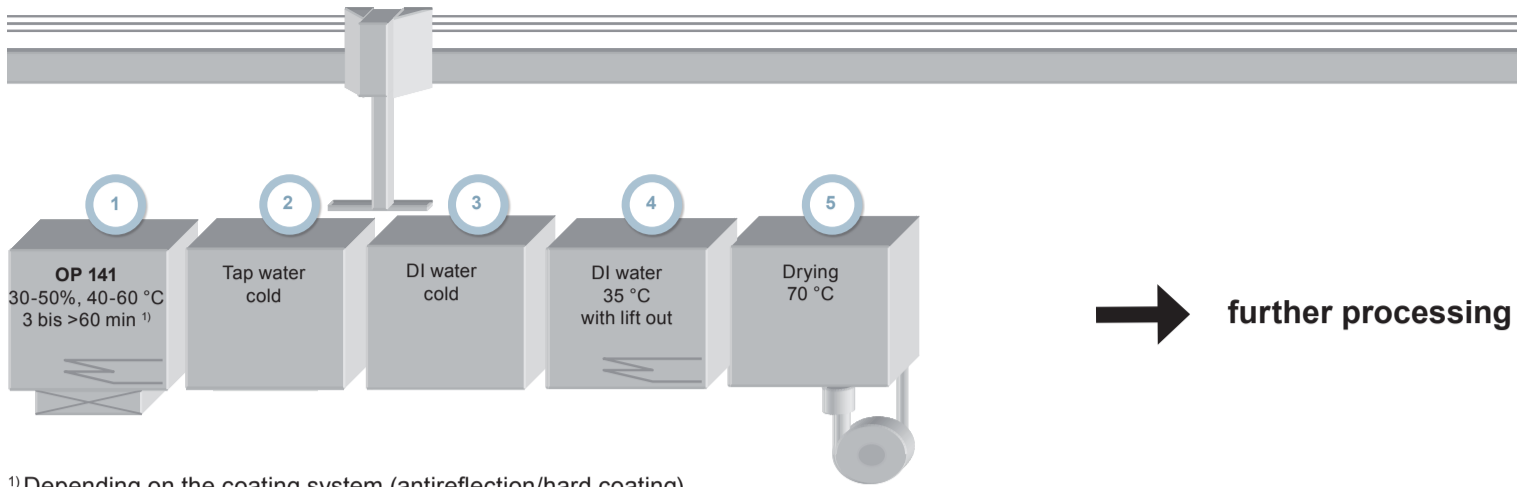

3. Ready-for-inspection cleaning in use of prosafe tape® (with and without hard-coat)

¹⁾ for mineral glass

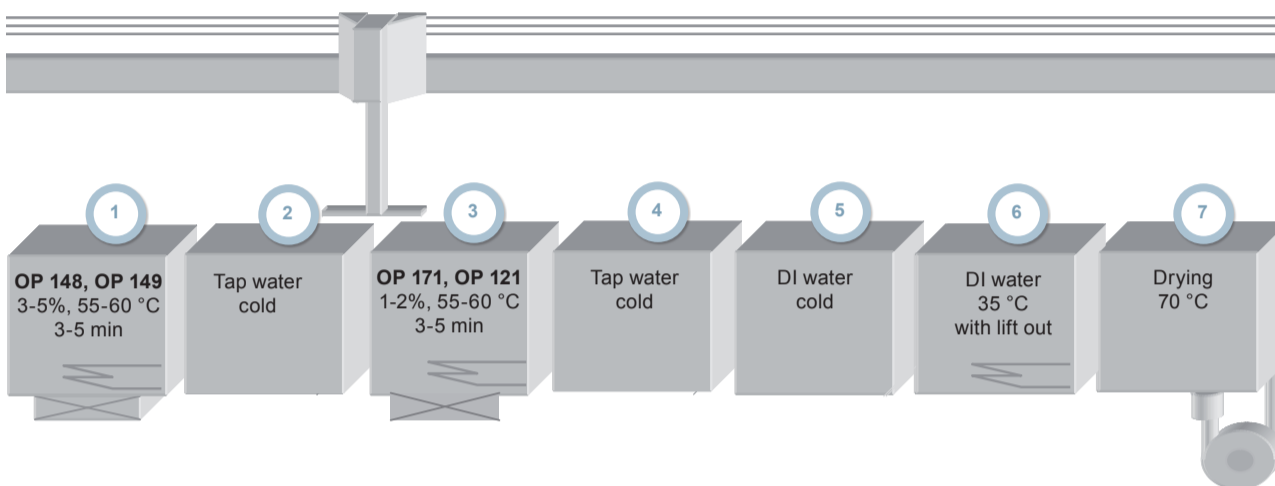

²⁾ for organic glass

4. Removal of antireflection and hard coatings

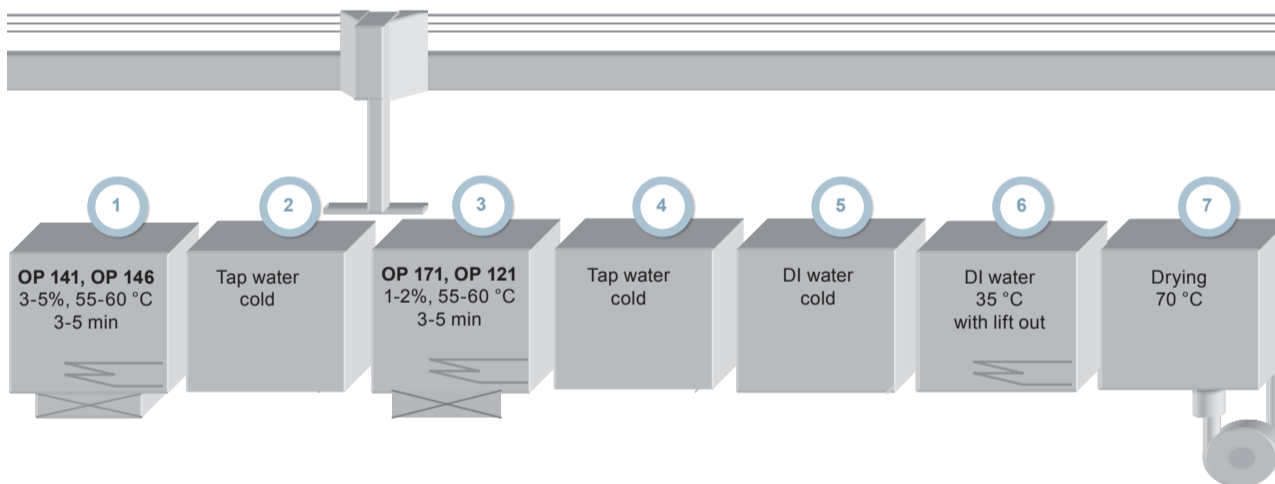

¹⁾ Depending on the coating system (antireflection/hard coating)

5. Ready-for-coating cleaning of mineral glass

6. Ready-for-coating cleaning of organic glass

7. Cleaning prior to hard coating

